

Financial strength you can count on

Secure your future with an insurer that has protected millions of families.

When you purchase life insurance, you want to be sure the insurer is financially sound and will be around for a long time.

The origins of Foresters Financial™ date back to 1874 when The Independent Order of Foresters (IOF) was founded as a fraternal benefit society. Fraternal benefit societies operate on a not-for-profit basis. Foresters profits go towards fulfilling our purpose: helping you do more of the good you want to do every day.

Today, Foresters is a trusted international financial services provider, with over two million members¹ in the US, Canada and the UK. Foresters maintains a strong financial position with assets of $12.2 billion and a surplus of $1.5 billion.²

For 23 consecutive years, the independent rating agency A.M.³ Best has given The Independent Order of Foresters an "A" (Excellent) rating for balance sheet strength and operating performance. In addition, DBRS Morningstar, the world's fourth-largest credit ratings agency, has also confirmed IOF's "A" Financial Strength Rating and Issuer Rating.⁴

Our Risk-Based Capital (RBC) ratio exceeds the guidelines developed by The National Association of Insurance Commissioners (NAIC) to make sure insurers set minimum levels of capital to support their business.

Strong enough to stand on our own

At Foresters, we manage our own financial reserves. Fraternal benefit societies, like Foresters, are not members of State Guaranty Associations and cannot be assessed to pay for the insolvency of other carriers. In the event the reserves of a class of certificates become impaired, Foresters members may be subject to a special assessment to maintain reserves. However, Foresters has assessed members only once in 1913 for certificates issued before 1898.

Foresters focuses on strong operational performance and careful management to withstand adverse business and market conditions. We continue to innovate products and services that go beyond financial planning to provide benefits that empower you – our clients and members – to make a positive difference in the world.
